Using and Disclosing Protected Health Information for Involvement in the Individual's Care and Notification Purposes

As per Notice of Privacy practices, Ear, Nose and Throat Consultants of Nevada must provide the patient with an opportunity to agree or disagree to the use or disclosure of patient health information to a patient's family members, or friends involved in their care.
You should review the Notice of Privacy Practices for a more complete description of how your protected health information may be used or disclosed. You may review the notice prior to signing this consent.
You may request a restriction on the use or disclosure of your protected health information. Ear, Nose & Throat Consultants of Nevada may or may not agree to restrict the use or disclosure of your protected health information. If Ear, Nose & Throat Consultants of Nevada agree to your request, the restriction will be binding on the practice. Use or disclosure of protected information in violation of an agreed upon restriction will be a violation of the federal privacy standards.
You may revoke this consent to the use and disclosure of your protected health information. You must revoke this consent in writing. Any use or disclosure that has already occurred prior to the date on which your revocation of consent is received will not be affected. Ear, Nose & Throat Consultants of Nevada reserves the right to modify the privacy practices outlined in the Notice.

This document will serve as a written agreement between _____ and Ear, Nose & Throat Consultants of Nevada as a list of those designated by the patient as having direct involvement with the patient's care.
In the event you are unable to sign a medical release for your records, please provide us with a list to include next of kin and/or persons names you will authorize us to release your medical records to. Persons noted below will have to fill Medical release and show proper Identification before receiving records. It will be the patient's responsibility to update as necessary.

Please mail me a copy of my records. (This will be processed upon request by phone or mail.)
